Thousands of reasons to give...

...Every week thousands of people come to Saint Ambrose to pray and worship God. We come to thank Him for all the blessings we receive, and to seek His continued guidance and strength.

...Thousands of young people come to Saint Ambrose each week to learn about Jesus Christ and to develop their God given gifts and talents. Saint Ambrose School, Littlest Angels Preschool and our Parish School of Religion work to help every child have the best possible education and faith formation.

...Thousands of people come to our parish throughout the year to find comfort, help and a feeling of home. We care for those who commend loved ones to God – provide counseling for those who are struggling and hurting – share food and basic essentials with our sisters and brothers who are in need. Thousands look to Saint Ambrose for help and hope.

...Thousands come to our parish to strengthen the bonds of faith and family. All of our parish events, festivals and programs are great ways to bring good people together centered on the Lord.

...And mostly, God blesses every sacrifice and offering we make – a thousandfold. As you tithe and make a generous sacrificial offering to God, the Lord will always find a way to thank you and bless you for your goodness.

There are thousands of reasons to support the work of the Lord at Saint Ambrose.

Automatic Giving (ACH) is a safe, convenient and very discerning way for you to consistently support our parish community. It also saves the parish the expense of printing and mailing.
